Although it is tempting, I don't think it is appropriate to ask our Federal partners for assistance. I would ask for a deferment or waiver from jury duty based upon Kate's status as an expert witness in several pending criminal trials.

Julie,

Kate told me has received jury duty notification for Federal Court for Dec 7-Dec 23. Each day she needs to call in and see if she is needed for that day. However, during that period of time she is already scheduled for 11 Massachusetts Court trials. Would it be inappropriate to pursue our contacts with the Feds and see if she can be excused from Federal jury duty at this time?

Thanks,

Betsy
